

NATIONAL CHURCH INSTITUTIONS

Deputy Head of the Legal Office for The Church of England

London, Westminster

Permanent, full time

£Competitive

The Legal Office provides legal services to the National Institutions of the Church of England and this senior role advises the Archbishops' Council, General Synod and acts as the Deputy Official Solicitor to the Church Commissioners. We now have an opportunity for a talented and committed individual to engage in the provision of legal advice and analysis to internal and external stakeholders at the highest level.

You will have extensive experience in providing advice and work with an exceptionally high level of independent professional and personal responsibility. Representing the Church to Government, Parliament and other external organisations you will be able to inspire confidence and trust in all those with whom you work whilst responding to legal challenges with creativity and innovation.
