

Attorney General

St Helena Island, South Atlantic

2 years FTC commencing ASAP – £80,000 pa, taxable in St Helena A tax free International Supplement will also apply

A sub-tropical island of spectacular and beautiful landscapes in the South Atlantic with a warm and friendly population of 4,500, St Helena is a self-governing overseas territory of the UK. Following the opening of its international airport in October 2017, St Helena is better placed to develop both economically and socially.

As Attorney General you will be principal legal adviser to the Governor and Governments of St Helena, Ascension and Tristan da Cunha. You will be responsible for all criminal proceedings and be the nominal party in civil litigation by or against the Crown. In addition, you will have overall responsibility for legislative drafting and for keeping laws up to date.

Your functions and responsibilities will be specified by the Constitution and by various Ordinances and by Common Law. You will offer comprehensive, reliable and timely legal advice to all organs of the respective Governments, responding pro-actively to issues as they arise or emerge. It will be your role to lead the institutional development of the Attorney General's Chambers and strategic future legal needs of the island. In addition to purely legal work, you will be one of the senior advisers to the Governor on a wide range of issues.

We offer an extensive benefits package with 30 days leave pa, fare paid travel, freight, pension contribution and relocation allowance (see overseas vacancy information).

An application form can be found at www.sthelenacareers.co.uk where further information can also be found, or you may contact Kedell Worboys on 0203 818 7610 or email: shgukrep@sthelenagov.com. This is where applications must be sent and received by 5 June 2019. Interviews will be held in London.

On St Helena there is currently a Solicitor General, four resident Crown Counsels in Chambers and another one in Ascension. This team is completed by a Legislative Drafter, a Legal Executive and a Legislative Draftsperson working remotely from Florida. There is no resident lawyer on Tristan da Cunha. The Attorney General is supported by a full-time Personal Assistant. The Crown Counsel of Ascension has separate clerical support.

You will have qualified as a solicitor or barrister in England and Wales or hold an equivalent qualification from elsewhere in the UK or in a Commonwealth jurisdiction. Post qualification experience should be of at least 7 years and include civil and criminal litigation with public and private higher-court advocacy, the former preferably within an Overseas Territory; you should have already worked in a small and isolated community and with leading a team.

Crown Counsel (Contracts & Commercial)

St Helena Island, South Atlantic

2 years FTC commencing in September/October 2019 £40,000 pa, taxable in St Helena – A tax free International Supplement will also apply (ranging £15,800-£22,100 pa)

A sub-tropical island of spectacular and beautiful landscapes in the South Atlantic with a warm and friendly population of 4,500, St Helena is a self-governing overseas territory of the UK. With the opening of a new international airport last year there is now a weekly scheduled flight from Johannesburg.

The Attorney General's Chambers is to be made up of the Attorney General, the Solicitor General, Crown Counsel (Community Care), Crown Counsel (Criminal), Crown Counsel (Contract and Commercial), Crown Counsel (Civil), a Legal Executive, two Legislative Draftspersons and a PA to the Attorney General.

An extensive benefits package is offered with 30 days leave per annum, fare paid travel for you and your family (spouse/partner and up to three children), freight, pension contribution, relocation allowance plus the International supplement (see overseas vacancy information).

An application form can be found at www.sthelenacareers.co.uk where further information can also be found, or you may contact Kedell Worboys on 0203 818 7610 or email: shgukrep@sthelenagov.com.

In order to apply please submit application forms to recruitment@sainthelena.gov.sh by the closing date of 24 June 2019. Interviews will be held in London shortly after that date.

Under the Attorney General you will provide legal advice and assistance to Government, primarily on contractual, procurement, commercial, corporate, infrastructure and property matters.

As an experienced UK/Commonwealth qualified barrister or solicitor, you will have a background in contract and commercial law. Your strong analytical and communication skills should be complemented by a flexible approach.

