

FOUNDRYCHAMBERS

Chambers wish to congratulate John McGuinness QC on his succession as head of Chambers to Mukul Chawla QC.

Chambers welcome Zarah Dickinson, James Partridge and Ben Joyes who have recently joined us as tenants, reinforcing not only our criminal team but also further enhancing our strong extradition team.

We further congratulate Racheal Muldoon, Sophie Stannard and Bethany Condron following their successful completion of pupillage.

Following our move to modern and flexible premises off Chancery Lane, Chambers seek further expansion and we invite applications from able practitioners at all levels of seniority. Chambers feature consistently as a Leading Set in both the Legal 500 and Chambers & Partners as specialists in crime and fraud, extradition, discipline and professional negligence.

We also seek to strengthen further our expanding practitioner base in the areas of extradition, local authority, and regulatory work.

Applicants should contact in the first instance John McGuinness QC at j.mcguinness@foundrychambers.com
